

A Partnership of:
Alpine Leadership
Mountain Mesa Training
Durango Chamber of Commerce
LPC Economic Development Alliance

The Engaging Executive

April 30 - May 3, 2019 * Durango, Colorado

In Partnership with Fort Lewis College, this four-day interactive session with other executives will develop actionable skills to influence others and build commitment into strategic initiatives in a way that is genuine and powerful. Executives will build a peer group as a lasting resource. Engage your team, increase trust, and facilitate more effective dialog. Includes one:one coaching and an emotional intelligence assessment.

Program Investment: $3800 / $2500 Alliance & Chamber Members

Program Details: Click here!

The Influential Manager - 5th year!

October 10, 2019 - March 12, 2020 * Durango, Colorado

Designed to provide relief for the middle manager squeezed between competing commitments. Participants increase effectiveness in engaging and developing their direct reports, and in operating optimally as a team. Increase personal bandwidth, develop thriving teams, increase influence, and learn to empower others. Six-month program, one full-day session per month, with practice and coaching between sessions.

Program Investment: $2250 / $2000 Alliance & Chamber Members

Program Details: Click here!

Step Up to Supervisor

April 25-26 + May 16, 2019 * Durango, Colorado

September 19-20 +24, 2019 October * Durango, Colorado

Two and one-half day interactive skills course focused on directing others and increasing your personal effectiveness as a supervisor.

New to supervision? Learn to create an effective workplace based on respect and accountability and practical techniques that encourage buy-in and responsible work habits.

Program Investment: $650 / $585 Alliance & Chamber Members

Program Details: Click here!

A Partnership of:
LPC Economic Development Alliance
Durango Chamber of Commerce
Alpine Leadership
Mountain Mesa Training

What to Expect From the Programs

- Local, experienced, and diverse instructors who work nationally and internationally
- Experiential, interactive, innovative approaches that produce practical and observable results
- Participants have immediate access to more effective action
- Course provides sufficient depth that the coursework is sustained into the workplace
- Small groups with dynamic interaction and practices
- Practical reference materials
- Adaptable facilitators who teach to the needs of the participants

Alpine Leadership

Mark Haeussler, BS, PCC, CHIC, is CEO of Alpine Leadership. Mark brings a strong business leadership career, and for the last 17 years, he has been coaching teams to reach their objectives with greater ease. He blends business acumen with varied coaching approaches, including authoring unique approaches and materials, to provide practical and lasting insights for clients. A business degree, three coaching certificates, and sixteen years of facilitation have made Mark expert in leadership development, succession planning, policy governance, and recruitment. A strong community volunteer, his current activities support youth in schools, music, and Scouts.

602.803.5979

MarkHaeussler@AlpineLeadership.CO

www.AlpineLeadership.CO

www.AlpineLeadership.CO/leadership-courses/

Mountain Mesa

Ellen Babers is the Chief Instigator at Mountain Mesa. Known for her innovative and experiential training programs, Ellen has an innate ability to build confidence and competence in others. She specializes in meeting facilitation, stakeholder engagement, and management team development. In 2015, Ellen partnered with the La Plata County Economic Development Alliance to create the Professional Development Program for Managers for area businesses. Mountain Mesa offers facilitation, training, and development for front line managers to company leaders, specifically for rural communities.

970.247.3104

ellen@mountainmesa.com

www.mountainmesa.com

